Player Divisions

Simple Explanation of Player Divisions

AusTour events will utilise a simple set of player divisions based on age, skill and gender. Note that in 2007 there will be no specific distinction between Pro and Amateur players as AusTour events will not provide cash payouts at this stage (merch and trophies only). The divisions are as follows:

Gender	Division	Description	Code
Men	Junior	Aged 16 and under	MJ
	Recreational	< 1 year playing	MR
	Advanced	> 1 year playing	MA
	Open	PDGA Rating 915+	MO
	Masters	Aged 40 and over	MM
Women	Junior	Aged 16 and under	FJ
	Recreational	< 1 year playing	FR
	Advanced	> 1 year playing	FA
	Open	PDGA Rating 800+	FO
	Masters	Aged 40 and over	FM

Note that in the case of the Open division, allocation is compulsory for players with a PDGA rating of over 915 or 800 for men and women respectively. Note that others may choose to compete in this category, even if they have a lower rating.

Note that when event reports for A-Tier ADGTour events are submitted to the PDGA, the correct PDGA division codes will be used based on the requirements specified by the PDGA. This reallocation of divisions will be performed by either the TD or ADG. Please see the PDGA Website for PDGA Division details.
